

LATE NEWS

Pine Bluff, Ark.—W. J. Nichols, 30, hanged today for murder of wife last September. First white man executed in Jefferson county.

Havana.—Speaker Ferrara, Cuban House of Representatives, left for Washington on secret mission in connection with rebellion.

Washington.—Supreme Court decided that Indiana law providing pure food for animals, and supervising stock food, was valid. Martin Savage, stock remedy maker, tested law, saying that his product was medicine.

Washington.—Supreme Court declare that railroads cannot carry railroad supplies at lower rates than are charged the public. Reverses Commerce Court decision.

Havana.—Whites at Regla said to have attempted to lynch a negro in the approved American fashion. Details not obtainable.

Philadelphia.—P. A. B. Widener, whose son George and grandson, Harry Elkins Widener, went down with Titanic, has sold his yacht. Will never sail seas again.

Washington.—Rear Admiral Sidney A. Staunton placed on the retired list U. S. navy today. Age limit.

New York.—Mayor Gaynor announces that he is willing to attempt to improve meat conditions if housewives will make suggestions.

Washington.—Army staff preparing order to send 5,000 troops to Cuba.

Medford, Ore.—Powder boy tried to load blast in Jacksonville quarry while smoking cigarettes. 3 dead, 7 seriously injured.

Body of William A. Beck, 35, 2244 Lubeck st., taken from river at La Salle st. today; car spring tied to neck; been in river several weeks; thought murdered. Beck was union teamster.

Bertha Grescha, 7, 1025 Lincoln st., was killed under wheels of Milwaukee ave. car at corner of Milwaukee and Paulina st.

Safeblowers did $250 damage to safe and office of Old Faithful laundry, 3036 W. Madison st., and got 69 cents out of it.

Another verdict of $4,000 returned against Overseer Volica of Zion City in the Phillip Mothersill libel suit.

Michael Swirup, 719 W. 14th st., is suffering from bullet wound in left leg from allowing friend to show him how revolver worked.

Safeblowers got away with $200 from H. M. Bruns' florist shop, 3038 W. Madison st.

John Algots, former superintendent of small parks, fired one month ago, denied rehearing by park commission.

Almost Mayor Harrison has now been gone for three days, and still no earthquake has shaken the city.

WEATHER REPORT

More Bully Sunshine!—Fair Friday and probably Saturday for Chicago and vicinity; not much change in temperature; moderate north winds becoming variable.